SCOTCH SHORTHORNS

CYRIL 5th and CYRIL M by KILLEARN CYRIL 30th AAA

Winners of the Claude Gallinger Special for the best pair of Shorthorn Bulls at the 1960 Saskatoon Interprovincial Bull Show and Sale. They sold at $1,500 and $1,200 respectively to Leo Halstead of Carbon, Alta., and A. M. Rowan of Plenty, Sask. Williams Shorthorns have won this coveted Gallinger Special three times—1957, 1960 and 1961.

NORSEMAN 10th by KILLEARN NORSEMAN 117th

He was Reserve Senior Champion at the Western Canada International Shorthorn Show, Calgary, in 1958 and Reserve Grand Champion at both Saskatoon and Regina that year. He sold to Cooper Brothers, West Bend, Sask., at the Riddell Dispersion and went on to the Royal Winter Fair in 1959 and was made Reserve Grand Champion. The females selling in this sale are bred exactly the same way as are the three bulls pictured on this page and the many other very popular Williams bulls that are in use all over Canada and the United States.

Foreword

It is difficult for me to write an introduction to this wonderful sale offering. Checking back through the issues of the Shorthorn News and the Westerner you find a veritable history of these two herds in word and picture. One would like to retell it all but it is impossible within the confines of this catalogue. So that is my difficulty—selecting the parts of most interest and most importance. Particularly, I would like to mention the many good herds that have made use of these bloodlines through the purchase of bulls and the addition of females. Again, space does not permit.

I think possibly the high regard that is held for the Williams and Clark Shorthorns and the relationship of one to the other is best illustrated by a quotation from the June, 1961, Shorthorn News reporting on the Futurity Show at Saskatoon and I quote: "John T. and Edward J. Clark, Inchkeith, Sask. garnered the champion Shorthorn bull award on Hillhurst Broncho 37th, an 18-month-old son of Beaufort Broncho. This bull contested with the champion female, Queen P, by Uppermill Palmer, shown by Rhys Williams and Son, Melville, Sask., for the Supreme Championship honours. Judge Killoh deliberated for some time before making his final decision in favour of the bull entry for Supreme laurels. Both were fine specimens of the breed and gave evidence of the soundness of the breeding programmes carried on in the herds of these two exhibitors."

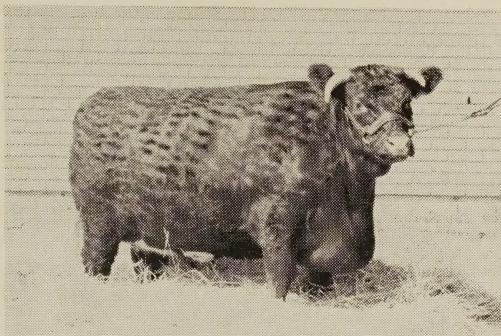

That is the way it has been all along . . . Williams with his three Gallinger Special Winners and Champion Saskatoon Futurity heifer since the start of the show . . . Clarks with their continuous steer championships for five years over all breeds and this year with the high selling bulls at both Regina and Saskatoon. Both herds are on the fair circuit each summer promoting the breed as well as their own line of breeding. I wish we had the space available to tabulate the fine pedigrees of all the great herd sires that have been used in these herds, featuring as they do the best bloodlines from Scotland and Canada.

These are not "here-today-gone-tomorrow" herds of Shorthorns. They are the "Breed Building" kind. The Clarks established their herd over 50 years ago and have been consistent contributors to the Regina Cattle Breeders Shows and Sales since that time. The record of the Williams-bred cattle proves they are practical, profitable, and true to a type only attained by a constructive breeding program carried on for many years.

These breeders have always been counted upon to present Shorthorns of high calibre . . . on September 20th they will offer you the Fundamentals of Success—practical, improved, utility Shorthorns.

WILLIAMS SHORTHORNS

PERFECT BLOSSOM 4th

From the Williams Shorthorn 1961 Show Herd pictured at the Regina Exhibition. This is the fourteenth consecutive year that Williams' Shorthorns have shown on the Class A circuit.

To Friends in the Shorthorn Industry:

We are holding this PRODUCTION-REDUCTION Sale because we have been carrying five head of cattle per acre. We are reducing to three head per acre.

We are happy to have John T. and Ed Clark of Inchkeith join with us.

We wish to offer as usual our bulls in the spring sales and for that reason we are offering only one young bull in this sale. He is a classy son of Uppermill Palmer (imported) which we believe most people will like.

The females offered represent the blood-lines that have produced the kind of cattle we have bred and sold during the past years and are what we consider a "working" practical and profitable type. They represent great breeding bulls with size and smooth fleshing: "Royal James" - "Norseman 117th" - Triple A "Cyril 30th."

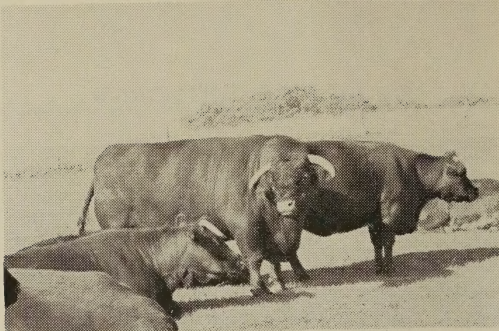

We cordially invite you to our sale and believe you will find the kind of cattle you like.

Fellow Shorthorn Breeders and Friends:

We had not planned on selling too many of our cattle this fall but when Mr. Williams invited us to consign a few head to his sale we thought it an excellent opportunity to take part in a good sale of Shorthorns.

We therefore have selected ten head that we think would be an attractive offering to any sale and the kind that will do well for their new owners. There is some from our Show Herd and some from our Breeding Herd and all represent the very finest bloodlines that we own.

We will look forward to meeting you at the Williams farm on September 20th.
